STAT

It is very sad for me to have to write on the occasion of your retirement to tell you how very much we have appreciated your assistance in the work of the Central Intelligence Agency over these many years. In all of the many tasks that you have handled for us we have known that the Agency would benefit greatly by your work

STAT

You should know that very best wishes from myself and all of your associates go with you on your retirement and we hope that we will be able to call on you for assistance in the event of need.

My very best wishes for health and happiness.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
